Subject: BDCP 404 meeting August 18th

I'm guessing that EPA is not always going to be double staffing your meetings (even though they are kind of interesting). But neither Erin nor I are available for the August 18th meeting.

I don't really think it's a great idea to have either EPA or the Corps completely absent. Although we can try, we really don't speak for each other's agency.

Is there a way to push this next meeting back to the last week of August, or some other time?
